Work Experience 2026 / 2027

Dundalk FM offers work experience placements for students and individuals who want to gain hands-on experience in a real working radio environment.

A work experience placement at Dundalk FM gives you practical exposure to all aspects of community radio. Depending on your interests and availability, you can expect to gain experience in radio presenting and microphone technique, audio recording and editing, programme research and preparation, studio operations and equipment, live broadcast support, and digital content and social media.

Community radio experience is highly valued by employers across the media and communications sector and is a strong addition to any CV or portfolio.

To apply for a work experience placement, get in touch with us directly. We will do our best to arrange a placement that fits your schedule and learning goals.

Meet our presenters

Power Play

1st & 3rd & 5th Saturday of month
12:00PM – 1:00PM

Adam Heslin presents Power Play on Dundalk FM 97.7, airing on the first, third, and fifth Saturdays of the month at noon, a focused and energetic music programme built around tracks that deserve to be heard at full volume.

The name Power Play says it well. This is not a show for background listening. Every track Adam selects has been chosen because it earns its place, because it has something to say and the musical force to say it. The programme sits in the Saturday lunchtime slot, exactly the right time for music with energy and purpose.

Adam has been building his presence at Dundalk FM over a number of years, developing his broadcasting skills and his programme identity with the support of the station's volunteer community. His show represents the kind of specialist, personality-driven music programming that Dundalk FM's schedule is designed to accommodate, giving presenters with genuine passion and knowledge a platform to share it with listeners who are looking for exactly that.
